

HINDU TRAC

Tradition, Religion, Aspiration, Culture

2-Day Sadhana Camp with

J. Jagadeesan

Former Deputy Director General, Malaysian Industrial Development Authority,
Consultant to multiple United Nations agencies

SAT/SUN June 24th and 25th, 10am-4pm

Evergreen Valley High School, 3300 Quimby Road, San Jose, CA 95148

Topics will include:

SYMBOLISM

The life messages hidden in the forms of Vishnu, Shiva, Ganesha and the Hindu Temple itself.

THE LINGAM

Celebrating the lingam as one of the greatest symbols of spritual science, and debunking misinterpretations

DEVI

The significance of the female form, prominent in Hinduism but absent in western religion.

Jagadeesan is a world-renowned, inspirational motivational speaker and has authored 12 books on Hinduism. The goal of TRAC is to empower Hindus of all ages, and especially young adults, with KNOWLEDGE, PRIDE and IDENTITY. TRAC is not an organization, simply a movement started by Jagadeesan with divine inspiration to help all Hindus to be loving and good servants to humanity, and thus be proud to be true followers of Sanatana Dharma (Eternal Righteousness).

For more information, please contact UC & Sowgandhi at (408) 257-4441, saiom108@sbcglobal.net, or Michael Chand at (510) 851-3809, mikechand1@comcast.net

The presentation is free of charge and lunch will be provided both days.
Participants are requested to register in advance at www.usahindutracs.org